

CONFIDENTIAL POST-EVENT MEMORANDUM

Reference: DRHR-POST-0811-Ω

Classification: L-5 and above only

Subject: Dr. Heinz A. Rotten

Date: 30 February 2031 (archival timestamp anomalous)

1. Anomalous Report

Beginning 11 August 2030, Dr. Rotten remained inside the laboratory for 203 consecutive days. Surveillance logs show:

- 02:11 — All tomato specimens simultaneously exuded a red mist.
- 02:24 — Handwriting appeared on the inner glass wall: “They have learned to calculate hunger.”
- 02:30 — CCTV snow for 24 seconds.

2. Interview Transcript (audio corrupted)

Dr. Rotten (whisper):

“Tomatoes are not food; they are timers.

Twenty-four beeps are not signals; they are a countdown.

The QR pattern in the cross-section is not decoration; it is a menu—
and humans are on the menu.”

3. Physiological Anomalies

- Blood analysis: lycopene concentration 811 μg/mL (normal <0.5).
- Skin: twenty-four heart-shaped erythemas emitting 811 Hz pulsed light at night.
- MRI: cerebral sulci display tomato-stripe patterns; memory cannot be distinguished from root system diagrams.

4. Final Record

At 02:47 on 30 February 2031, Dr. Rotten held the microphone to his chest and said:
“They are beginning the harvest.”

5. Follow-up Directive

- Seal all TOMATO-OS specimens immediately.
- Do not consume tomato products within 24 hours of reading this memorandum.
